

End-User License Agreement

Last updated: 12/9/2019

This End-User License Agreement (the “EULA” or “Agreement”) is a legal agreement between You (the “Licensee”, “you”) as the user, being either an individual or an entity and Law & Blockchain Consultancy (“NeoLogin”, “us”, “we” or “our”), being a sole proprietorship incorporated in the Netherlands, concerning the use of the NeoLogin wallet (the “Wallet” or the “Software”).

By registering for and using the Wallet, whether through www.neologin.io, any associated website, API, decentralized application or mobile application, you agree that you have read, understood, and accepted all of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, as well as our Privacy Policy (and included Cookie Policy).

THIS EULA CONTAINS INFORMATION WHICH IS CRUCIAL TO THE PROPER USAGE OF THE WALLET. MAKE SURE YOU UNDERSTAND AND ACCEPT THE TERMS CONTAINED HEREIN OR REFRAIN FROM USING THE WALLET. NO PERMISSION IS GRANTED TO THOSE WHO DO NOT AGREE TO BE BOUND TO THIS EULA.

Definitions:

“Digital Assets” is an umbrella term for any and all virtual currencies, cryptocurrencies, utility tokens, digital collectibles, stable coins, proxy tokens or any other blockchain-based tokens or digital representations of value of any kind. The term does not include a derivative of a Digital Asset or a security as defined under applicable law.

“Fork” means a change to the underlying protocol of a Digital Asset network that results in more than one version of a Digital Asset, the result of which may be one or more versions that are not supported by NeoLogin.

“Private Key” means an encrypted alphanumeric code that permits access to a corresponding Public Key’s Digital Asset holdings. In layman's terms, it is the secret number that allows users to send digital assets on the blockchain.

“Public Key” means an alphanumeric code which serves as a public identifier for blockchain-based transactions. In layman's terms, it is comparable to a digital ID or account number.

“Proxy Tokens” means a digital representation of a token on another blockchain that has been created while locking the original token in order to facilitate a new kind of cross-chain token transfer through two-way pegs between multiple blockchains.

1. License

- 1.1. Legal Capacity. By using the Blockchain Site and entering into this User Agreement, you affirm that you are an individual, at least 18 years of age or older, have the capacity to enter into this User Agreement and agree to be legally bound by the terms and conditions of this User Agreement, including the the Privacy Policy (and included Cookie Policy). Any person under the age of 18 does not receive our permission to use the Wallet under the terms of this Agreement.

- 1.2. Limited license. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, we hereby grant you a limited, non-sublicensable, worldwide, non-assignable, non-exclusive and royalty-free license to use the Wallet for your personal purposes, strictly in accordance with this EULA. The Software is licensed to you, not sold, and we reserve any rights not expressly granted to you in this EULA

2. The Wallet

2.1. Description and creation of the Wallet

- 2.1.1. Noncustodial. The Wallet is provided to you exclusively by NeoLogin as a web-based interface. At no point will we ever take custody of any Digital Assets in the wallet. We do not ever have access to your funds or your private key. Only you can get access to this private key, which is stored in encrypted form on Github servers, by logging into our Wallet using your credentials (which are never known to us), thereby decrypting your private key for usage during a single login session.
- 2.1.2. Account and wallet creation. When you create an account, the web-based Wallet software generates a cryptographic Private and Public Key pair that you may use to send and receive any supported Digital Assets. You will only be able to do so by logging into the Wallet, thereby decrypting your Private Key. During the account and wallet creation process, you will be given the possibility to download your Private Key as back-up. YOU MUST DOWNLOAD THIS PRIVATE KEY AND STORE IT, OUTSIDE OF THE SERVICES, AS A BACKUP FOR ACCOUNT RECOVERY PURPOSES IF YOU LOSE SOMEHOW LOSE OR FORGET YOUR PASSWORD.
- 2.1.3. Credentials. You must keep secret all credentials associated with the Wallet. Do not share this information with anyone as it greatly endangers your own funds' safety and security. You are solely responsible for managing and maintaining the security of any information relating to such credentials and agree that we shall not be held responsible (and you shall not hold us responsible) for any unauthorized access to the Services or any resulting harm you may suffer. ONLY BY USING YOUR PASSWORD ARE YOU ABLE TO GAIN ACCESS TO, SEND AND RECEIVE YOUR DIGITAL ASSETS. YOU MUST STORE, OUTSIDE OF THE SERVICES, A BACKUP OF ALL WALLET CREDENTIALS IN ORDER TO NOT LOSE SUCH ACCESS AS IT MIGHT RESULT IN THE PERMANENT LOSS OF YOUR FUNDS. WE ARE IN NO WAY RESPONSIBLE FOR SUCH LOSSES.
- 2.1.4. Account recovery. CONTRARY TO WHAT YOU ARE USED TO, OUR WALLET HAS NO EMAIL-BASED PASSWORD RECOVERY PROCESS, AS THIS WOULD ENDANGER THE SECURITY OF YOUR DIGITAL ASSETS. INSTEAD, ACCOUNT RECOVERY IS ONLY POSSIBLE INsofar you have backed up your Private Key during the account creation process. WE CANNOT HELP YOU RECOVER YOUR ACCOUNT IF YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN YOUR PASSWORD AND HAVE LOST YOUR PRIVATE KEY, AND YOUR FUNDS WILL BE LOST FOREVER. WE ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY SUCH LOSSES.
- 2.1.5. Entropy. Make sure to use a very strong password consisting of a randomly generated alphanumeric code which furthermore includes special signs in order to increase the resilience of your password against hacking attempts. While we nudge users towards the usage of strong (high entropy) passwords, we are not responsible for the resilience of your password in case of a breach and/or brute-force password cracking attacks, which might lead to the permanent loss of your funds.

2.2. Usage of, and risk disclosure related to the Wallet and our services

- 2.2.1. Phishing. The wallet is exclusively provided to you by us via our website www.neologin.io. If accessed through the websites of third-party (decentralized) applications, a pop-up window will always occur with this address URL. Always make sure you are on this specific web address (URL) before entering your credentials and be aware and vigilant of phishing attempts.

- 2.2.2. Digital Asset support. The Wallet only supports a limited amount of specifically designated virtual currencies and digital assets. Do not ever send other (non-supported) Digital Assets to your public key than those displayed in the Wallet itself to your public key address, as this can result in the permanent loss of those digital assets. Do not ever send any assets that are not natively based on the Neo blockchain to your wallet/public key in particular, as it will result in the permanent loss of those digital assets. We are not responsible for any such losses.
- 2.2.3. Communications. Any and all communications from NeoLogin may be provided to you via electronic mail at the address you provided when accessing the Services. This may include crucial communication regarding steps to be taken to ensure the safety and security of your funds. We shall not be responsible for any harm you may suffer as a result of your failure to receive any notice provided to you in connection with this User Agreement or your use of Services so long as such notice is provided to such email address. When receiving communications, make sure to validate whether they are sent by an email address associated with Neologin, which in any case will end with @neologin.io and be aware and vigilant of phishing attempts.
- 2.2.4. Customer support. As described above, we cannot help our users with any sort of account or fund recovery as we do not have access to either. Moreover, we will never personally ask you to provide us with any credentials, passwords or private keys in any way shape or form. Never give such information away, as it might result in the permanent loss of your funds. We are not responsible for any such losses.
- 2.2.5. Third party applications. As open-source software, NeoLogin may be integrated with any number of third party (decentralized) applications, which allow you to use their services by login in with your Neologin account. Be aware that such third-party applications are not in any way related to NeoLogin itself. We are not responsible for your use of such third party applications or any damages or losses incurred due to such usage.

2.3. Cross-chain functionality.

- 2.3.1. Proxy tokens. The Wallet might have a limited amount of cross-chain functionality in the future due to its support for certain Proxy Tokens. Note that Proxy Tokens are not 100% the same as their original version on their native blockchains and that PROXY TOKENS CANNOT BE TRANSFERRED TO PUBLIC KEY ADDRESSES ON THEIR ORIGINAL BLOCKCHAIN, OR USED ON THEIR ORIGINAL BLOCKCHAIN TO ACCESS ANY SORT OF UTILITY, SMART CONTRACTS OR ANY OTHER FUNCTIONALITY.
- 2.3.2. Two-way pegs. Also note that NeoLogin does not guarantee the stability or safety of any two-way pegs, and cannot guarantee that Proxy tokens retain their value, even in relation to the original version of those tokens. The two-way pegs (or bridges) between blockchains that allow for the creation of Proxy Tokens are based on innovative, nascent technology with inherent technological and economic risks. THE OWNERSHIP AND/OR USAGE OF SUCH PROXY TOKENS ON OR THROUGH NEOLOGIN IS PURELY AT YOUR OWN RISK AND MIGHT RESULT IN THE PARTIAL OR COMPLETE LOSS OF FUNDS.
- 2.3.3. Deposits. DO NOT EVER SEND TOKENS TO YOUR NEOLOGIN'S PUBLIC KEY ADDRESS WHICH ARE NOT NATIVE TO THE NEO BLOCKCHAIN, AS IT MIGHT RESULT IN THE PARTIAL OR COMPLETE LOSS OF FUNDS.

2.4. Other blockchain-related risk disclosures

- 2.4.1. Digital Asset transactions. In order to be completed, any Digital Asset transaction created with the Wallet must be confirmed and recorded in the blockchain associated with the relevant Digital Asset.

Such networks are decentralized, peer-to-peer networks supported by independent third parties, which are not owned, controlled or operated by us. NeoLogin has no control over any blockchain and therefore cannot and does not ensure that any transaction details you submit via our Wallet will be confirmed on the relevant network. The transaction details you submit via our Wallet may not be completed, or may otherwise be substantially delayed, by the Digital Asset network used to process the transaction. We do not guarantee that the Wallet can transfer title or right in any Digital Asset or make any warranties whatsoever with regard to title.

2.4.2. No cancellations of transactions. Once transaction details have been submitted to a blockchain, we cannot assist you to cancel or otherwise modify your transaction or transaction details. NeoLogin has no control over any Virtual Currency network and does not have the ability to facilitate any cancellation or modification requests.

2.4.3. Forks. In the event of a Fork or other network disruption, we may not be able to support activity related to your Digital Asset. In the event of a Fork, our services might be suspended temporarily, transactions may not be completed, completed partially, incorrectly completed, or substantially delayed. We may furthermore not support one or more of the competing versions of a blockchain which emerge after a Fork, including the original blockchain. We are not responsible for any loss incurred by you caused in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by a Fork or other network disruption.

3. Restrictions on Use
